

SHARON BAGG

Visual Storyteller | Mixed-Media Artist

Israel

Profile

Visual storyteller working across collage, assemblage, artist books, and research-based practice. Her work explores how stories continue to live through objects, language, and the layered traces of everyday life, with a particular focus on women's experiences, relationships, identity, and belonging.

Artistic Practice

- Visual Storytelling
- Collage
- Assemblage
- Artist Books
- Mixed Media
- Research-Based Practice

Professional Background

Writer | Content Developer

Over three decades of professional experience in writing, storytelling, content development, and narrative strategy for individuals, organizations, books, lectures, and digital projects.

Her visual art practice grows directly from this lifelong engagement with stories and language.

Current Research

- Stories and Material Memory
- Women's Experiences and Emotional Inheritance
- Language as Material
- Hebrew and Biblical Vocabulary
- Material Culture and Visual Archives
- Emotional Archaeology
- Research-Based Visual Storytelling

Materials

- Old Books
- Maps
- Photographs
- Newspapers
- Printed Ephemera
- Handwritten Notes
- Personal Archives
- Text Fragments
- Found Objects
- Wood
- Fabric
- Paper
- Mixed Media

Languages

- Hebrew (Native)
- English (Professional Working Proficiency)